NEW YEAR GREETINGS

MUSTER CALL

date: Thursday
11 January 1990
time: 6:15 p.m.
Mess Call
place: Wyatt's Cafeteria
Hancock Center

Another year is upon us. The decade of the eighties is over. Can you believe the changes you have seen this year? How about the inroads of democracy? Does it make you proud of the fact that as Southerners yours is a long heritage of democratic government: the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. Constitution, the Confederate States of America. The rest of the world never ceases to be amazed that we can peaceably turn over the reins of power to another administration. Not that the camp should be compared to our country, but that is just what we will be doing on our regular monthly meeting for January, 1990. The newly elected officers will be installed in their offices to serve you--the camp members--during the ensuing year. And isn't this the democratic process in microcosm?

Every officer-elect needs to make an effort to attend. You as camp members should try to attend to support the new slate of officers and to see this democratic change in administration take place.

The program for this month will be a 30-minute video from the Atlas Video Library entitled "Ironclads: the Monitor and the Merrimac." This is a 1988 production narrated by Edwin Newman. Yes, this time your editor has previewed the tape and can attest to its quality and enjoyability! So, shall we see you there? We hope so. At this meeting and throughout the year, please remember that families are always invited and welcomed as are any prospective members!

COMMANDER'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

It was a cool, crisp night. Wool uniforms and long dresses felt really good warding off the cold. Some even wore their "union suits", ladies and gents. The setting in the Lt. Governor's Reception Room in the Capitol added class and atmosphere to the occasion. The table was spread with many delectable victuals. Everyone's appetite was sharpened to a razor's edge. The egg nog was served. Joyous and festive conversation abounded. Pictures were taken--first in the room and then later around the tree in the rotunda. The only halt in the gaiety was the men retiring momentarily to receive the Nomination Comm. Report. Not to be dropping names, but the Camp was honored by having the Tex. Div., United Daughters of the Confederacy, Pres. Edith Williams present. Also counted among the revelers was the new Mrs. Commander Kerry Hellums. Were you there? If you were not, then make sure you plan on coming next year with your lady.

ALL DUES ARE DUE, PLEASE DO!

Compatriots, this is the second notice to you that your 1990 SCV DUES are now due and payable. The dues amount is $20.00 for SCV members. CAMP NEWS

COMMANDER GETS HITCHED!

On Saturday, December 16, 1989, the new Brenda Sue Hellums and our 1989 Commander, Kerry Hellums tied the knot at his home in San Marcos. Kerry was dressed in western attire and the bride wore black and white. It was a small wedding. Compatriot Dan Kuykendall gave the bride away. The new, happy couple left on their honeymoon to the beautiful pastoral setting of Wimberly. However, they were heard of sooner than you might imagine. Both attended the Commander's Christmas Party that very evening in the State Capitol beaming in their happiness. We wish the Hellums much happiness in their life together, and we admire Brenda for being such a good sport on her wedding day to attend a camp function.

Compatriot BOB WINSTON and his lovely wife SARA celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary during the month of December with a few family and friends. We think it wonderful these two have shared so much of themselves and their lives with each other. Cupid's arrow must have really worked on Bob. How wonderfully beautiful!
